

CURRICULUM VITAE

CIANCIO ALESSIA. M.D., PhD

Working address: Department of Gastroenterology,
Città della Salute e delle Scienze di Torino (Molinette), Ambulatorio di GastroEpatologia Sperimentazioni Cliniche Epatiti Virali
corso Bramante 88 - 10126 Torino

- Born: in Pinerolo, Turin, Italy, May 17, 1969
- Family: Married with two kids

EDUCATION

- High School Degree in July 1988, at scientific liceum “M. Curie” in Pinerolo.
- M.D., magna cum laude, on October 25, 1994 at the 'University of Turin, discussing a thesis entitled “ Infectious complications after liver transplantation (OLT): bacteria and viral infections; morbidity and risk in immunodeficient patient”.
- Licensed to medical practice (Italy) at the University of Turin School of Medicine, June 1995. Chartered in the Italian Medical Register with N°17556 and authorized as Medical Doctor from June 1995.
- Undergraduate training at the Department of Gastroenterology, Hospital “S. Giovanni Battista di Torino” (Molinette) directed by Prof. G. Verme, November 1992 to October 1994.
- Post-graduate training at the Department of Gastroenterology, Hospital “S. Giovanni Battista di Torino” (Molinette) directed by Prof. G. Verme, October 1994 to October 1995.
- Research and clinical training from November 1995 to August 2006 , as a postgraduate specialist doctor at Department of Gastroenterology, Hospital “S. Giovanni Battista di Torino” (Molinette) directed by Prof. M. Rizzetto, working in the ward, in the liver transplant ambulatory and in Endoscopy Digestive Service.
- Postgraduate Speciality School in Gastroenterology and Digestive Endoscopy , magna cum laude, at the University of Turin discussing a thesis on “ Manganese concentration in advanced liver disease” on October 1999
- Research and clinical training during summer 1999 and March 2000, as a visiting scientist in Généve at the Department of Gastroenterology, Hopital Universitaire Cantonal de Génève directed by Prof. F. Negro, were she contribute to the sequencing of serum samples from patients underwent to liver transplant for HBV cirrhosis and treated with Lamivudine. During this research she identified a new mutation in the pre-s/s region of the virus.
- Research and clinical training from June 2001 to January 2003, as a visiting Scientist at the Division of Molecular Virology and Immunology, Georgetown University, School of Medicine, Washington DC (Director. Prof JL. Gerin) where she studied the virological profiles of patients with chronic hepatitis B, anti-e positive treated with Lamivudine. During this study she identified two polymorphisms predictive of response to Lamivudine therapy. During her period in the US she collaborated in two different projects: the HCV-RNA quantification by Real Time assay on cell culture infected with HCV and microarrays assay for the evaluation of gene patterns expression in woodchuck infected with HBV.

- PhD in “Medical Physiopathology” at the university of Turin, on 19 th January 2004 .
- Research associate at the Department of Gastroenterology, Hospital “S. Giovanni Battista di Torino” (Molinette) and Turin University from October 2006 to June 2019
- Associate Professor of Gastroenterology, Division of Gastroenterology and Hepatology Department of Medical Sciences University of Torino from July 2019 until now
- Several years experience (from 1998) as Investigator in International (phase II, III and IV) and local clinical trials conducted under ICH-GCP procedures in antiviral therapy and viral chronic hepatitis HBV, HDV and HCV treatment.
- GCP training during Investigator Meetings or Initiation visits.

Teaching activity at University of Torino

- Gastroenterology, Medicine and Surgery, San Luigi Gonzaga University Hospital , English Degree - from 2018 until now
- Gastroenterologia, Medicina e Chirurgia, Città della Salute e della Scienza di Torino , Laurea in italiano - from 2015 until now
- Gastroenterologia, corso integrato “Infermieristica Clinica in Area Medica” corso di Laurea in “Scienze Infermieristiche” di Asti, from 2009 until now
- Gastroenterologia, corso integrato “Infermieristica Clinica in Area Medica” corso di Laurea in “Scienze Infermieristiche” di Ivrea, from 2010 until now
- Gastroenterologia, corso integrato “Infermieristica Clinica in Area Medica” corso di Laurea in “Scienze Infermieristiche” di Aosta, from 2013 until now
- Gastroenterologia, corso di Laurea in “Fisioterapia” di Torino, from 2018 until now
- Gastroenterologia, Scuola di Specializzazione in Gastroenterologia, sede di Torino from 2015 until now
- Gastroenterologia, Scuola di Specializzazione in Scienze della Nutrizione, sede di Torino from 2015 until now
